Arizona Bell Ranch is located under five miles north of Willcox, Arizona. Unlike many areas in Cochise County, there is development in this subdivision. This lot lies just south of Saddle Road and measures a total of one acre. It is buildable, and NOT in a flood zone. This is a great area to either build or simply start your land portfolio at an affordable price.

City of Willcox

The air is unpolluted, the water is pure, the temperatures are moderate, and the sunsets are spectacular. Willcox has plenty of things to keep everyone busy from outdoor recreation such as hiking, biking, camping; bird watching to beautiful sunsets. Historic downtown Willcox is home to some of Willcox Wine Country tasting rooms, interesting shops, restaurants, museums, and great people.

Originally known as "Maley", the town was founded in 1880 as a whistlestop on the Southern Pacific Railroad. It was renamed in honor of a visit by General Orlando B. Willcox in 1889. The town was incorporated in 1915. In the early 20th century, Willcox had the distinction of being a national leader in cattle production. Agriculture remains important to the local economy, and Willcox has maintained its rural lifestyle through a strong agricultural and ranching economy.

Cochise County

Home to Tombstone, Cochise County has over 130,000 residents. Area industries include copper, cattle, cotton and silver. In the county's largest city, Sierra Vista, US Army Intelligence Center Fort Huachuca helps to contribute to an already strong economy. While the county may be large in size (as large as Connecticut and Rhode Island combined), you will find more similarities than differences as you traverse the area.

Purchasing land is an investment and we are here to help you through that process. Government Land Sales, Inc. was started as an alternative investment tool to the traditional stock market, CD's, bonds, etc. Raw land is less susceptible to the ups and downs of the other investment markets. We believ...
